The boys saw the girl
did the girls see the boy Vertigo in Paris on the 7th of July coast to coast long distance call over the hills and far away a crashing in our hand it's like a hammer in our heads it's a felling in our hearts it's a message in a stance? a promise is a promise and though a promise is a promise shhh, 2 minutes silence gonna take u out tonight

did the girl see the boy these things won't come too fast they're gettin faster now with arms like a chameleon she changes with her jewelry she stood beside his car but refused to take a ride the boy saw the girl and the girl saw the boy they gave each other objects to remind them of that night was it something that they said that always turns out right shhhh, two minutes silence he's taking her out tonight

it all turns out all right
