

The End Of Summer

Parralox

And now you're standing in the rain
You feel anger - I feel pain
I never wanted you to go,
But we both know it must be so

We are lovers, we are friends
We stay together till the end
And so we realise at last
We're not alone

The end of summer
(You know I'll miss you so)
The end of summer
(Why do you have to go?)
The end of summer
(Please stay for one more day)
The end of summer
(Don't break my heart again)

We met under a silver moon
The wormwood flowers still in bloom
We tasted many things that day
We'll take our secrets far away..

We are lovers, we are friends
We stay together till the end
And so we realise at last
We're not alone, alone, alone

The end of summer
(You know I'll miss you so)
The end of summer
(Why do you have to go?)
The end of summer
(Please stay for one more day)
The end of summer
(Don't break my heart again)

Choose life, be young and free
Some things are meant to be
Just come away with me
One day we'll all be free

The end of summer
(You know I'll miss you so)
The end of summer
(Why do you have to go?)
The end of summer
(Please stay for one more day)
The end of summer
(Don't break my heart again)

The end of summer
(You know I'll miss you so)
The end of summer
(Why do you have to go?)
The end of summer

(Please stay for one more day)
The end of summer
(Don't break my heart again)
The end of summer
