5th Season

Paul Weller

A storm is raging inside my head The wind is howling such thoughts of death Why am I so lost and confused? Can't find the reason for feeling blue There's so much I can't explain Hope this season changes soon The lightning strikes and the mountains fall The sea's come crashing against it all

Hang on tight in the tides of change And get your bearings from those still same There's so much I've yet to feel Hope the seasons change me too.

The serpent tangles in the lion's claw A cloud of darkness hangs over all As fires soar in search of sky So blow embers like fire flies Hoping love is where they'll lie And the season change us too.
