

We're Too Drunk

Peter and the Test Tube Babies

We've been sitting in the pub thinking of new songs to play we rip off so many so we gotta write some our own way.

We're too drunk to play, we're too drunk to play, we're too drunk too play Rock'n'Roll.

When we hit the stage the world is spinning 'round, when Derek hits a note he falls into the crowd.
