

Performance

Priestess

Some say happiness is a burden
As I lie here trying to attain
Inside outside I'm nothing
But the more I see through the more I have to gain

If at first you don't succeed its normal
But the second time you're expected to perform
We perform
Stand up, listen, ill tell you where we went wrong

Give me a reason to stop asking
I know that some things can't be mine
Inside outside I'm nothing
And the layers crumble one piece at a time

if you expect me to go out there and shine every night
You know there's something about that that just isn't right

We perform
Stand up, listen, ill tell you where we went wrong