

Shed My Skin

Prime Circle

There is a new instinct inside my head today
And it's telling me that I shouldn't make myself wait
For all the world around me to go away
Cause I'm hating what I'm seeing

Caught up in a dream
Caught up in a scheme
Caught up by the way I'm feeling
No wonder the truth
Is not made up of proof
There's always other meanings

(Always other meanings...)

Now everything in life seems fabricated
And every face I see has a story to tell
I wish I knew more about this life
So I could have a story as well

[Chorus:]

It feels like the first time
And I can always shed my skin
I come back to save face
Don't you know it's my face

From one extreme to the next, I will follow
Got a feeling in my chest that wants to explore Everything just seems so different
But I'm sure I've been here before

[Chorus]

It feels like the first time
And I can always shed my skin
I come back to save face
Don't you know it's my thing

Come over
Come see why
I'm in a moment that I just can't explain
I need to, to warn me now over road and and I see i'm down, down today and I feel like I'm lost in every way yea-eah yeah, oooooo yeah yeah yeah, wo-oooooo

Gonna shed my skin,
shed my skin, shed my skin
(there's always other meanings)
Gonna shed my skin, shed my skin, shed my skin
(there's always other meanings)
Gonna shed my skin, shed my skin, shed my skin
(there's always other meanings)
Gonna shed my skin, shed my skin
(always other meanings)
