Misfit Toys

Every season feels the same I'm sure you could agree This day can bring reminders Of the blackest memories

My pieces never seem to fit Blood that's closest to me Are more like vacant faces Dolls with dead batteries

We're all broken Like misfit toys We rest in pieces begging for You to make us one

If today is just about these Pine trees and lights I'll take a match and strike it While my living room ignites

So in the distance All I see is bathed in snowy white While we're stranded on this island Under black stars tonight

Take One look In my eyes and you'll know Only when we're broken can we be restored Project 86
