

Oh The Way

Promise of Redemption

Oh the way you, looking like you own the room
Yeah, you do it so well
That I can't tell if it's okay to take you home with me

If just for tonight, or the rest our lives
I will take my time to show you how you're always on my mind
So can you take off that brown shirt
So I can get to know you better
You've got me wrapped around your finger
You've got me wrapped around your finger

Every time I close my eyes I pray for night time
To take me home
And the clouds in the sky lit up by moonlight
Are my only guide to take me home

If just for tonight, or the rest our lives
I will take my time to show you how you're always on my mind
So can you take off that brown shirt
So I can get to know you better
You've got me wrapped around your finger
You've got me wrapped around your finger

So stand up or sit down
You always had a funny way of not knowing what to do
And oh it seems to mean much more when you
You bat your eyes and tell me the truth
But if you listen to the sound of my heart beat
You know you can truly tell
The feeling that you get when our eyes meet
It's something more than you've ever felt

The night is over all the lights are out
Just you and I in this empty house

We've got so much time
We've got so much time

So step back and never let go
Your voice is the only thing that guides me home
So step back and never let go
Cause it's something I just thought that you should know
