

Shame

The Rasmus

Talking about life, what it was 'n' what it's gonna be.
Get ready for the best time.

He's a friend of mine born in the '79
. 'n' there will be a day when he hears me when I say:
hey, you better be thinking about your future.
There will be a day when he hears me when I say:
you're spoiling your life, you won't have another.
You ain't thinking about your friends, do you hear me brother?
I have just one thing to say to you:

SHAME! (SHAME!) You can't fool me,
let me show that the whole thing sucks!
SHAME! (SHAME!) You can't rule me,
I'm saying no to the drugs!

Living is hard, sure I know,
but yet if you listen to my rule number on,
I bet positive attitude will carry you thru your life.
Think it thru before you take your first high.
One day you are a winner, next day you're a loser.
Don't spoil your changes by being user.
I have just another thing to say to you:
You can't fool me! You can't fool me!
I'm the king of the new generation?
