

The Wonder Of You

Ratcat

(S.DAY)

Running and jumping, the rain's falling down.
Screaming and thumping, my mind is not around.
It's the wonder of me for you.
Floating and flying, my hearts in the sky.
Living and dying, do you? I wonder why.
It's the wonder of me for you.
It's the wonder of me and you.
At midnight, we scream and we fight,
then we make love, til sleep is the only retreat.
Screaming and laughing, my head's long for gone.
Falling and crashing, it is softer in the dawn.
It's the wonder of me for you .
It's the wonder of me and you.
At midnight, we scream and we fight,
then we make love, til sleep is the only retreat.
Touching and sighing, it's never the same.
Buzzing and dreaming, I'm high in you again
It's the wonder of me for you.
It's the wonder of me and you.
At midnight, we scream and we fight,
then we make love, till sleep is the only retreat.
For you and me.
