California Song

Red Wanting Blue

What are these things I see What are these things I see Hey, oh Down in California Hey, oh Down in California Tick, tock Tick, tock When's the rain gonna stop Drip, drop Drip, drop Why does this blood continue to drop Click, clock Click, clock Standing on top of the impatient clock Drip, drop Drip, drop Will someone make the rain stop Hey, oh Down in California Hey, oh Down in California Red wants blue And blue wants red Who wants who And who is dead Will someone please take the sheets off my bed I fear they're growing quite old And who will walk with you alone And who will mend the broken throne Will someone please take her home I fear she won't come back Hey, oh Down in California Hey, oh Down in California Lighthouse, lighthouse Shine for me Show me the haven at the end of the sea Lighthouse, lighthouse Bring me light For you are the sun in my evil night Hey, oh Down in California Hey, oh Down in California
