

Hear the bird sing warnings of the witches and the liars
Hidden in the shadows and our deepest desire
Our way to live our life still remain to be
All of my dreams will come true

Far beyond the horizon you're waiting there
Eternity waits beyond your gates
Open up your eyes and witness our paradise

Heaven takes me higher tonight
We will see it once again
Why can't we all just believe in paradise
When heaven waits
When heaven waits for you

Even when our dreams come true
We have to face our own reality
In eyes of fire we cry to get higher
Higher in the sky we fly away
We fly to the sky

Land of salvation will conquer all
Start believe in your dreams
Angel choirs sing for you as you enter through...
