Now Jericho was straitly shut up because of the children of Isr ael: none went out, and none came in. And the LORD said unto Jo shua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king t hereof, and the mighty men of valour. And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. And seven priests shall bear before th e ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye sha ll compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow wit h the trumpets. And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; an d the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people sha ll ascend up every man straight before him. ¶And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. And he said unto the pe ople, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD. And it came to pass, when J oshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearin g the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. And the armed men went before the priests t hat blew with the trumpets, and the rereward came after the ark , the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. And Josh ua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor ma ke any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed ou t of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye s hout. So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp. And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of ra ms' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and b lew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. And the second day they comp assed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did si x days. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city afte r the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the p eople, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city. ¶And the ci ty shall be accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are w ith her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we se nt. And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing , lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accurse d thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. B ut all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury o f the LORD. So the people shouted when the priests blew with th e trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the soun d of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, th at the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. A nd they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man an d woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the ed ge of the sword. But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring ou t thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware unto her . And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Ra hab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left th em without the camp of Israel. And they burnt the city with fir e, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury o f the house of the LORD. And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot aliv e, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dw elleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messen gers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, t hat riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son sh all he set up the gates of it. So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.
