It's sixteen miles to the promise land
And I promise you, I'm doing the best I can
Now don't fool yourself
In thinking you're more than a man
Cause you'll probably end up dead

I visit these mountains with frequency And I stand here with my arms out Now some days they'll last longer than others But this day by the lake went too fast

And if you want me You better speak up I won't wait So you better move fast

Don't fool yourself
In thinking you're more than you are
With your arms outstretched to me

Now it's sixteen miles to the promised land And I promise you I'm doing the best I can Now some days they last longer than others But this day by the lake went to fast

And if you want me, You better speak up I won't wait So you better move fast

And somedays they last longer than others $\mbox{\ensuremath{But}}$ this day by the lake went to fast

And if you want me, You better speak up I won't wait So you better move fast
