

Throw Your Arms Around Me

Rogue Traders

Catch my breath with every step
I inhale between every word you say oh yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it again

My pulse races with fingers tracing
I exhale between every look you give oh yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it again

So I just dream away and then pretend to hear you say

Throw your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
Til there's no turning back

Heat will rise I cannot defy it
It's become obscene you're the words I mean oh yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it again

How come I feel like I'm gonna die
Every time you mention my name I feel the same oh yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it again
