

Sooner Or Later (the Next Move)

Rookie of the Year

Carolina's rain splashes on my face
Florida's sun is watching her every move
Kentucky burnt up with the new year, that has to tell you something
I wasn't ready yet to make the next move

No matter what I hear I'll be right here waiting
No matter what you say I'll be on your side
Don't ever give up here tonight

Sooner or later I know we'll just be dreaming
Anywhere you go, I'll still feel you

Your necklace around my neck, I'm still wearing
Its all frayed now, but I tied a new knot

No matter what I hear I'll be right here waiting
No matter what you say I'll be on your side
Don't ever give up here tonight

Sooner or later I know we'll just be dreaming
Anywhere you go, I'll still feel you
Sooner or later I know we'll just be dreaming
Anywhere you go, I'll still feel you
Anywhere you go, I'll still feel you
Anywhere you go
Anywhere you go

As I sit around right here, you sit around right there
anywhere you go
As I sit around right here, you sit around right there
I just want to feel this way tonight
As I sit around right here, you sit around right there
Feel this way tonight
As I sit around right here, you sit around right there
Feel this way tonight

Sooner or later I know we'll just be dreaming
Feel this way tonight.
