

With a mix of love and sorrow
I'm watching the beautiful land that already by its birth was ordained to come to an end.

Why?
It disappeared under the layers of millenniums, not even a recollection has remained.
Where went the living and dead so beautiful and yet mortal?

It only lives in my mind, the awesomely sad recollection of the cruel fate of my beloved, proud nation - Kärgeräi.
