

Rain

Rootz Underground

Why oh why does it have to be so hard sometimes?
I know that the patterns of the wind tonight;
They just blow my mind
Still learning and unlearning, as I'm moving right
through the sands of time
I know I do what I can do to create a life filled with sunshine for you and I
And so I hold you and girl
I know I'll slowly get lost inside your eyes
And I see the rain is falling down tonight on you and I
But this time ;
I won't mind

Its getting hard to stand while your pushing me away
Wounds are easy to heal when I kneel down and pray
And I kneel down and pray everyday
Seven colors seven dreams just like a rainbow
Seven times I rise and seven times I fall in love
Seven times I loved you yet you hurt my soul
But somehow I found this faith in love
That's why I hold you and girl
I know I'll slowly get lost inside your eyes
And I see the rain is falling down tonight on you and I
But this time I wont mind

Bridge

Why does it Rain so long?
Why do I feel so strong?
I thought the clouds were all gone
I think I loved you too long

Why oh why does it have to be so hard sometimes?
I know that the patterns of the wind tonight;
They just blow my mind
Still learning and unlearning, as I'm moving right
through the sands of time
I know I do what I can do to create a life
filled with sunshine for you and I
And so I hold you and girl
I know I'll slowly get lost inside your eyes
And I see the rain is falling down tonight on you and I
But this time I won't cry

Seven colors seven dreams just like a rainbow
Seven times I rise and seven times I fall in love
Seven times I loved you yet you hurt my soul
But somehow I found this faith in love

That's why I hold you and girl
I know I'll slowly get lost inside your eyes
And I see the rain is falling down tonight on you and I this time. But I dont mind.
Let it Rain, Let it Rain, Let it Rain, Let it Rain
