Try (Just a Little Bit Harder)

Roxette

- I left and wrote down this song cos my life looked so shatterd I thank the Lord I'm still strong like before I picked myself up from the floor and tried
- I tried just a little bit harder, oh yea

  If someone wants you to bleed and it feels like your're dying

  Don't make the moves you don't need, don't cry, just say ba-babye-bye and try, try

Try just a little bit harder, you'll survive
Try just a little bit harder, go ahead and try

Mondays and rainy days were in my pocket I don't want to send them on to you Bring them home to you
