

The First Time

Ryan Star

She is waiting patiently
For all of them to sleep
Awake at night
And we are losing who we are
The time has come too far
For us to leave

And you, you want it to feel like a dream
And I'm feeling you at your seams
So don't say a word and don't cry
Just let go and you'll feel alive

She, she's waited patiently
And I was so ready
To feel inside her
Love

Want it to feel like a dream
And I'm feeling you at your seams
So don't say a word and don't cry
You said it was love
But you lied

You want it to feel like a dream
And I'm touching at your seams
Don't say a word and don't cry
Just let go and you'll feel alive
