

Only You

S Club 8

I thought I'd write it in a letter,
As I'm too shy to say to you I guess
I should have known better
But I don't know what else to do

I'm on my way, no turning back so take
Me in your arms and then we'll be right on track

I wrote these words to you to tell you
Just what you mean to me, I hope you
Like these lines cause I love you even
More than yesterday and all I say to you
Is true will you return to me I'll wait and See cause all I need is you only you

(It's only you)

You held me through the stormiest
Weather your what I need to guide me
Through without you nothing else matters
Your something I look forward to

You make my day no holding back
So take me in your arms
And then we'll be right on track

(It must be till it's true because for me there is only you)

Boy's: only you
Girls: it's only you
Boy's: only you
Girls: it's only you
