

Diamond Eyed Devil

Sarah Blackwood

my baby's spent
wanna kick him out the door
but the farther away
he loses his taste
and I'm wantin' more

my body is warm
and I can't find a door open enough
they're all locked and stuck this nightmare is cold

went all the way down down to a place I could call oh but the look on his face screaming disgrace
he said darlin' it's old it's old

I'm fishin' for something can't hold on alone
and I knew he'd be back he said babe I'll be back in your arms tomorrow

I keep trying to hide
but it hurts so much more and I'm running on nothin' but cocaine and sufferin' maybe it's old

is this about to be it?
should I give my soul to Jesus?
my heart skips a beat and I'm cold in my feet will my blood turn the color black?
and seep through my body bag?
sometimes I'm running but more times I'm scared

kissin' his lips know I'm playin' with death but his eyes are like diamonds in a room full of shit he smiles and he's got me an angel I thought
and he grabs on and holds on I'm takin' my breath

my baby's spent
and I'm wantin' more
