

Do, Do, Do

Sarah Brightman

When you're down you can feel so low
When you're up everything is go
But at night looking in a glass time will pass.
I know music can bring you pain
So I'm gonna win again.
Gonna stick to my plan and do the best I can.

I hear the rhythm of the rain on my windowpane.

I hear the rhythm, I hear the rhythm
I stand alone with only dreams that might have been.
Do Do Do...

Well I'm looking for love and hope
Cos I know that I just can't cope
With a kinky sponge and soap on a rope

I hear the rhythm, I hear the rhythm

When you're down you can feel so low
When you up everything is go
Do do do do do do
Do do do
I hear the rhythm...
