Black Coffee

Sarah Vaughan

I'm feeling mighty lonesome haven't slept a wink I walk the floor and watch the door and in between I drink
black coffee

love's a hand-me-down brew I'll never know a sunday in this weekday room

I'm talking to the shadows one o'clock to four and lord, how slow the moments go when all I do is pour black coffee

since the blues caught my eye I'm hanging out on monday my sunday dream's too dry now, a man is born to go a-loving a woman's born to weep and fret to stay at home and tend her oven and drown her past regrets in coffee and cigarettes

I'm moody all the morning mourning all the night and in between, it's nicotine and not much heart to fight black coffee feeling low as the ground it's driving me crazy just waiting for my baby to maybe come around
