Travelling

Seabound

Every day I travel To keep my mind quiet in its cage Every night I`m dancing With the images I generate

What moves my soul ? Where do I go ?

Restless I keep searching To understand the madman`s heart

I`m wandering the streets of pain Taking the confusion Shed my skin, adore the rain Merge in the illusion

There`s no use denying The truth beyond our anxious lies Paradise is fiction And love`s a desperate compromise

We will burn Feel the fascination You will learn

I`m wandering the streets of pain Taking the confusion Shed my skin, adore the rain Merge in the illusion

We`re walking down the streets of pain Sharing the confusion Leave your home, forget your name Merge in the illusion
