

The Knife

Seasons After

Blinded by you, new fixation
Poison lips, my intoxication
I fell so hard I'm still aching
It hurt so long, my fill taken

Masquerade as someone who could learn to feel
Never recognizing your whole life isn't real
Anesthetize me once again and have your way
I've already gone away

I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come undone
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come un, come undone

Tearing my mind, so frustrated
I stayed my will, annihilated
I knew the dirt, Kansas City
You live with it, you have my pity

Masquerade as someone who could learn to feel
Never recognizing your whole life isn't real
Anesthetize me once again and have your way
I've already gone away

I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come undone
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come un, come undone

One thing I recall
I know we all will fall
I know we all will pass too fast

Masquerade as someone who could learn to feel
Never recognizing your whole life isn't real
Anesthetize me once again and have your way
I've already gone away

I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come undone
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to
I'm beginning to come un, come undone
Come undone
