

Legend

Secret Sphere

Candlelight shades dance upon her glance, stands in loneliness,
her mind to hope...forever, an angel without wings that's her destiny, she feels the emptiness killing her soul

Rain, blood, storm and thunders, run Aurienne through the night, ...storm and thunders, until

I'll take your hands tonight, you'll live over the ages and fly through the gates of wisdom, Your eyes will see the power, the strenght of a world where emotions and feelings are life

I see a sphere, shining bright, it invades me, it fills my eyes

These words tear a silence made of steel, darkin' times were slowly rapin' her smile, appears a tear, slowly falling, bringing away the pain, uh, the first tear of joy, after the last one of sadness

Run Aurienne through the night, until

I'll take your hands tonight,
you'll live over the ages and fly
through the gates of wisdom,
Your eyes will see the power,
the strenght of a world where
emotions and feelings are life

Shadows surround my life, I'll tear them,
with the force of mind, I have no...fear,
never think you'd die without light, you're much stronger

Wings of power now raise me I'm overflyng the time
