

Feel

Sengir

I long to feel
the point of no return...

Never walked alone
I thought I'd always fly back home
But it takes no fear
to find a way to disappaer

Thought it would always be a part of me
so real
I never thought it would find a way to dissapaer
So am I really running free?
from this feeling
I long to feel
the point of no return
one peaceful day
I will let it all slip away
