I present to you the present I present to you my gift here and now I know that I'm hearing it now I present to you my undying love Eyes with sight farther than I could ever see I present to you my faith in you This is the biggest part of me This is the biggest part of me Here is the biggest part of me All the love I've had at once With all my heart And with all my soul My spirit is the biggest part of me All the love I've had at once With all your heart and with all your soul The Great Spirit is here with me Here with me I present to you my heart Will you help me carry it It's gotten so heavy over the summers This is the best one of my life I now leave you with my soul Be gentle it's all I have left I present to you my trust in you... This is the biggest part of me All the love I have at once These are all of my life here This is the best one of my life...