

Here We Go Again

Sex Pistols

Well I've seen you once or twice
And I think you're rather nice
Tell me what is your name
And will you come again

How far can you spit
Is your voice like grit
Might seem out of tune
But you'll love one day soon

Here we go here we go again
Here we go here we go again
Here we go here we go again
Here we go I just cannot pretend
Here we go we're off again
Here we go here we go again
Here we go I just cannot pretend
Here we go we're off again

Stop waisting my time
Get off of my line
What do you wanna ask
The sun shines out my ass

Well I was never wrong
I wrote all the songs
The same old motor runs
I ain't no rolling stone
