

Girls, Girls, Girls

SHINee

I don't know if this is love
But I can't take my eyes off her
I want to steal her heart
But it's too hard, I don't know how

Lesson One - girls have a high sense of hearing
They fall for just the voice alone
If you sing her a sweet song
If you play the piano, she will fall for you

Girls, Girls, Girls
Girls are too hard for me
Girls, Girls, Girls
I don't know anything about them
We will teach you, girls
I just can't trust you
There's so much I want to know
Girls are too hard for me, girls

Look at the girls, they go shopping every day
So think about it, clothes are very important
You can't fall behind with the trends
You need to look, pret-a-porter

You're wrong - girls are animals of emotions
Whisper sweet words to them
Give them a slightly eye smile
And play the piano - then she will fall for you

Girls, Girls, Girls
Girls are too hard for me
Girls, Girls, Girls
I don't know anything about them
We will teach you, girls
I just can't trust you
There's so much I want to know
Girls are too hard for me, girls

Why are you all worrying so much?
Do you really need to try that hard?
Girls don't look at anything else but
Height and face

You need to dress well
Saying sweet words
With a voice like honey
A statuesque face
With an eye smile
As you play the piano
What are you all saying? My head hurts

Girls, Girls, Girls
Girls are too hard for me
Girls, Girls, Girls
I don't know anything about them
We will teach you, girls
I just can't trust you

There is really no answer
Girls are too hard for me, girls

Your heart needs to be soft, your eyes need to be tough
Your awkward image will make her smile
Instead of staying still, go up to her and talk to her
Smile first, take care of her and yield to her

With a neat outfit, prepare a serious conversation
You don't want to remain as friends but it's too early for love too
But the answer is to move as your heart tells you
Everything will come to you as reality
Girls!
