

Sometimes

Sister Hazel

By simple definition I'd be scattered, Oh where do I begin
Well I'm stuck within the mortal framework
Of having to use words
And I ... - I've never been one -
I've never been one for incompleteness

My attempts to say - never find their way nah uh (All these things they escape me) inconsistency is inconsistency within this conversation - yeah!

Sometimes: You know there's no limits and ...

Sometimes: I'm a mother, I'm a brother, I'm a lover and another
...

Sometimes: I'm scared - but sometimes I'm a hero ...

Sometimes: But mostly I'm just me!

In some regards I'd use the term eclectic
The merging of experience
And different points of view - oh yeah
Well I think, I learn, I listen and I sift my way right through
And I ... - I'm always the one
I'm always the one with fascination - yeah ...
