

Light Hates Me

Six Degrees of Separation

Light hates me
Conspiracy of light - sundogs hunting me
I can't run, I can't fight - blaze pins right through me
Cruel spears of light, poisoned tongues of sun
Razors of bright try to put me down
Flames from above burn the soil around
I stumble and fall what shelter can I find
Cruel spears of light, poisoned tongues of sun
Razors of bright try to put me down
Light hates me, light hates me
Light hates me, light hates me
The hate of light as sharp as a storm
The light hates me since I was born
Night it's on my side, it's my shield, it's my bride
Night it's on my side, it's my shield, it's my bride
The hate of light as sharp as a storm
The light hates me since I was born
Last seed of truth you had never seen
Protected by flash hidden inside me
Tyranny of light will not come to be
Single beam of dark (and night will reappear)
Light hates me, light hates me
Light hates me, light hates me
