Snak the Ripper

Ya, ayo' before the internet They only know my tag
I' use to walk to school with a marker in my bag Stealing ciggarette's just to spark em' and brag getting beat up after scholl in the park',
What a drag!
A couple rich pricks actin like They run shit
Picking on every one making fun of dumb shit
Was never good at math, i was never athletic
They use to point at me and laugh calling me pathetic
I thought i wasn't smart cause i failed every class
Music, art and drama those the ones that i passed
Never graduated 'cause i hated other kids
Infatuated with graffiti was the only shit i did
You better treat people good if you looking for respect
Its a simple principle what you give is what you get
Now the kids they use to push me down and kick me in the head
Well' ones looked up and the other ones dead
THAT'S KARMA!

You better watch how you act,
Its coming for you fast
Keep watching your back,
You wanna know the future
Right now you making it,
what goes around come around
Ain't no escaping it

You better watch how you act,
Its coming for you fast
Keep watching your back,
You wanna know the future
Right now you making it,
what goes around come around
Ain't no escaping it

I used to know this popular girl
Who thought she was hot
She used to dress like a slut and gossip a lot
She only dated the guys with cars an blow
Spent every, night at the bar as far as I know
She didn't need school
She wasn't reading any books
Could get anything she wanted all
She needed was her looks
Walkin' round town like her shit don't stink
Always sayin' stupid shit like the bitch don't think
She would tease all the girls try to steal all the guys
Never feels no emotion you could see it in her eyes
You could tell what she was dirty from the bruises on her things
All the booze and the drugs, all the dudes in her life
The makeup on her face never was a good disguise
For the ugliness inside,
Yo I guess it's no surprise
She was actin like a snob now
She's a fat slob
With a bunch of ugly kids

and a crappy ass job, that's karma

You better watch how you act,
Its coming for you fast
Keep watching your back,
You wanna know the future
Right now you making it,
what goes around come around
Ain't no escaping it

You better watch how you act,
Its coming for you fast
Keep watching your back,
You wanna know the future
Right now you making it,
what goes around come around
Ain't no escaping it

THAT'S KARMA!!!!
