

Ride Girl

Snak the Ripper

And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl
And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl

Every time she smiles at me, I feel like I'm unstoppable happiness like this I never really thought was possible Absolutely beautiful, she's everything to me.
If we had never met, I cant imagine where I'd be she's more than just my girl, cause see together we're a team
Before I knew her name, I knew I met her in a dream
Now she sleep beside me every night and treat me like a king
Her voice is like an angel, I just listen to her sing
When my confidence was low and all I did was second guess Everything I've done so far, she told me I'm the best
This song is for my shorty, she's above all of the rest
She knows exactly how to ease my mind when I am stressed There's something 'bout the way she moves, must be how she shakes her hips
The way she laughs when we kiss, I just wanna taste her lips
The only one I truly trust, I'm just tryna let her know I love her mo re than anything and I ain't tryna let her go

And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl
And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl

It's just you and me against the world, nobody can come between Sexy, smart and talented, the cutest smile I ever seen
The type of girl that other girls wishin they could be She's passionate about her craft, she's motivated to succeed
She's got a lot of wisdom so I listen when she speaks
She keeps me eating healthy, in the kitchen she's a beast
She texts me sexy pictures every time that we're apart
More than just a hottie cause her body's like a work of art
Hypnotized by a rise and I can't snap out of it Don't mess with other girls, cause I'm loyal and I'm proud of it
To or all around the globe, we ain't gotta be alone
Don't matter where we go cause when I'm with her I am home
Yeah it feels so good I can't explain, holding hands in the rain
Just in case you didn't hear it let me say it all again
The only one I truly trust, I'm just tryna let her know I love her mo
re than anything and I ain't tryna let her go

And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl
And if you stayin by my side, imma take you for a ride girl
I know you feelin it inside, there's some shit you can't deny girl
