

New Feelings

Soul Asylum

Roll away the chains that wrap around me
Wipe the spider webs from my eyes
Tumble down the tall walls that surround me
No outside, no lies, no alibis

My new feelings
New feelings (×5)

Daydream screams sometimes don't seem? so far away

No, I'm not possessed by my possessions
Lift my head to clear my right to die
You're in love with your evangelist investment
I don't need an alibi

My new feelings
New feelings (×5)

Daydream screams, they just don't seem? so far away

(Ohhhh, ohhh, ohhhh, ohhhh)

My head's like a wrecking ball and you look like a wall
Mopping up the tears that fill your eyes
This is my life, my right and that's not all
I just laughed my head off and cried

My new feelings
New feelings (×5)

Daydream screams, they just don't seem? so far away
