

Musclebound

Spandau Ballet

We're building fires that will burn until morning the smell of books and hot stone surround us tough is the leather thats strapped to my skin strong are the bonds that we make we feel the steam as it rises around us up from the soil that is cracking its back tough us the leather thats strapped to my skin strong are the bonds that sing work til you're musclebound all night long

work til you're musclebound all night long gotta work til you're musclebound all night long

to hear a pulsing from chanter to mountain down through the vein and into the grain strong is the shoulder that moves to the time here is the land it can break
