Roll up, roll up to the jamboree Roll up, roll up to the jamboree

Roll up, roll up, troupers jamboree Old friends attend, long time no see Roll up, roll up, troupers come on down Big top, non stop, annual reunion

I know what you're thinking, I know what you'll say But I gotta getta be, at the troupers jamboree There's safety in numbers, I'll never forget 40 years ago, on with the show

Distant voices calling, calling me Entertaining me Memories of the heydays With the better company

Keeping a lonely vigil while the girls all have a ball
The stories come out thick and fast, long, short and tall
There's Frank du Preze on the flying trapeze
Finally come down to earth
Good ol' Chris the contortionist, is bent if not worse
Dear ol' Merle the strip-tease girl, do anything for kicks
And the ol' magician has disappeared, still up to his old trick

Well the gag man's been gagged And the straight man's gone straight The mime artiste too clever for words And the MC's still late

Oh Jamboree, oh Jamboree!

Oh Jamboree, oh Jamboree!

Oh Jamboree, oh Jamboree!

Oh Jamboree, oh Jamboree!
