

Stay True

Stacie Orrico

All through my life I've seen so many smiling faces come and go some of them have tried to bring my spirit low.. cuz they see my hearts devoted to the one who alwayz knows seem to hold my hand so tight or let it go I hear people talkin theres no way im stoppin empty words wont change my love for

Im gonna stay true I dont want someone knew Im gonna stay true to you
Im gonna stay true this is my attitude
Im gonna stay true cuz nobody else will do

Alwayz tryin to convince me that your love is just a lie, that I might as well be listenin to the sky saying you wont really love me when you know whats deep inside, you'll just go cuz your above the sacrifice one thing that I know of they cant steal your love doubting words wont change my point of view

Im gonna stay true I dont want someone knew
Im gonna stay true to you
Im gonna stay true this is my attitude
Im gonna stay true cuz nobody else will do

This is all I want out of life please know your love I will not deny Im gonna stay
Im gonna stay true to you
I think I'll stay true im gonna see it through Im gonna stay tr ue
cuz nobody else will do ya wanna know what I believe that your love is real you wont ever leave that they'll never steal Im gonna stay true and thats my attitude
Im gonna stay true cuz nobody else will do
