

Buried Unkind

Steelheart

I never Thought I'd come so far
To leave you all behind
You beried me unkind
You made it so damn hard to see
What was left of me
I'm better off alone

Happiness is what I want to be
Loneliness I don't wanna see

I never Thought I'd come so far
To leave you all behind
You beried me unkind
You made it so damn hard to see
What was left of me
I'm better off alone

All the selfishness
Was turning me insane
Now I must confess
To who I am

I never Thought I'd come so far
To leave you all behind
You beried me unkind
You made it so damn hard to see
What was left of me
I'm better off alone

So many more
Will die alone
Shamely

For so long
You brought pain into my life
And Hell to roam
I've been so badly painted
And in your heart I'm tainted
I do love you no more

So Long

I never Thought I'd come so far
To leave you all behind
You beried me unkind
You made it so damn hard to see
What was left of me
I'm better off alone
