Tell Me It's All Right

Steppenwolf

Tell me what you've got to give me Tell me what you've got that's free All I want is all you got, hey You would do the same to me

That's all I seem to hear, day in, day out Where it not for your sweet love, I'd scream and shout

Every day's a new beginning But every night the same old end Will the good times really come again Will a dollar buy a quarter Will a quarter buy some time Time enough to save the Five and Dime

Somebody, tell me it's all right (it's all right) To believe that it's all over Tell me it's o.k. (it's o.k.) Happy days are on their way

All I ever want (to feel right) Is the best of everything (come tomorrow) All I ever need (it's o.k.) Is a perfect world today
