

Way Beyond The Blue

Steven Curtis Chapman

Way beyond the blue, the father is calling
Let him take you to a life beyond compare

Passion fades and your sense of adventure
Sits collecting dust on a shelf, the new gets old and hearts get cold
Where's the flame that burned with excitement?
Where's the hope you once knew so well?

It's lost at sea with all your dreams there you stand caught between
An endless sky above and earth below
Look above and beyond what you see
To find a view of all that this life can be

Way beyond the blue where the father is calling
Let him take you to a life beyond compare
His love is wider than the sky above you
He has plans for you that go way beyond the blue

Like the wind carries an eagle, let his hand carry you now
And show you scenes of his mighty strength
As you rise high above all the riches that this world could give
You will find the depth of his love, and his grace that is lifting you up to live

Way beyond the blue where the father is calling
Let him take you to a life beyond compare
His love is wider than the sky above you
He has plans for you that go way beyond the blue, beyond blue

God has raised us up with Christ
And seated us with him in heavenly places
So that he can show the riches of his grace
To the coming ages

Way beyond the blue where the father is calling
Let him take you to a life beyond compare
His love is wider than the sky above you
He has plans for you that go way beyond the blue

Where the father is calling
Let him take you to a life beyond compare
He has plans for you that go way beyond the blue
Way beyond the blue
