

Out of Time

Stone Temple Pilots

Longing is the animal inside you when you bleed
Suffering is critical in finding what you need
Deliverance is evidence there's more than what you say
Pain is there the moment that you wake up from your dreams

Oh, I know you can't tithe
Oh, when you look inside yourself
You've got to cross that line
Yeah, you're running out of time

Loneliness is beautiful, it leads you home again
Happiness is overrated, joy is infinite
Liberate the hate you feel before it's permanent Smile when it hurts, it works like mother's medicine

Oh, I know you can't tithe
Oh, when you look inside yourself
you've got to cross that line
Yeah, you're running out of time

You've got to learn your lesson to see what you've been missing
You've got to cross that line

Yeah, you've got to look inside
Yeah, it's time that you decide
Yeah, you've got to cross that line
Yeah, you're running out of time
