

Cross My Broken Heart

Suzy Bogguss

Maybe it's true we're not together
But when I close my eyes, you're still here
The sweet taste of love can last forever
Sometimes it makes me cry
But I still find a smile for every tear

Maybe I am blue
Maybe I'm crazy too
But I'll always love you
Cross my broken heart

When I hear your name in conversation
I melt into a dream, I can't forget
Don't get me wrong, I'm not complaining
It hurts me now and then
But I'd do it all again with no regrets

Maybe I am blue
Maybe I'm crazy too
And I'll always love you
Cross my broken heart

I could say love wasn't worth
All the tears that it took
But I wouldn't lie to you, now
You know I never could

Maybe I am blue
Maybe I'm crazy too
But I'll always love you
Cross my broken heart

Maybe I'm crazy too
And I'll always love you
Cross my broken heart
