

Should I try and cut myself for you?
Do I have to let it bleed with no regard?
Tell me just exactly what to do
I'm afraid I have gone too far

Cause I don't know just what your feeling yet
Cause I've been left out in the cold
All I know is we both share regrets
We haven't done this yet
There's nothing here we cannot change

I could never find myself without you
You could never be yourself without me
Why even try to lie or ignore the truth?
Is there someone else I should be?

Cause I don't know just what your feeling yet
Cause I've been left out in the cold
All I know is we both share regrets
We haven't done this yet
There's nothing here we cannot change
We cannot change

All I know is we both share regrets

Cause I don't know just what you're feeling yet
Cause I've been left out in the cold
Cause I don't know just what you're feeling yet
Cause I've been left out in the cold
All I know is we both share regrets
We haven't done this yet
There's nothing here that we can change
