

Vengeance And Victory

The Absence

All legions crush them to dust
Forever turns black now frozen to rust
Awaken, feel the bliss in reverse
The weight of our struggle
Hunger and thirst

Triumph we seek
Vengeance and victory
Crush your enemies
Vengeance and victory

Legacies cursed to the wolves
The beasts of all burden
Have been turned loose
We will run where victory rides
So summon your strength
Summon your pride
Cold silence where
The final stand settles
We remain and wait
This is where the fatal
Strike hits it's mark
A storm of iron and rage

You are haunted by the heartless
Fooled by false prophets
Hunted by those of unbreakable will
No remorse, built to kill

Triumph we seek
Vengeance and victory
Crush your enemies
Vengeance and victory

Triumph we seek
Vengeance and victory
Crush your enemies
Vengeance and victory

A pitiless war to be waged this night
Crippling their courage
Leaving all crucified
To the death we stand and fight

Triumph we seek
Vengeance and victory
Crush your enemies
Vengeance and victory

Triumph we seek
Vengeance and victory
Crush your enemies
In vengeance and victory
