

Can You Trust Me?

The Basics

When you touch my hand
I get a feeling in my feet
That I will never understand
Why it is
That I can feel this way and be so young
I'm so in love with you
But can you trust me?
Can you trust me?
I know, in my past
There has been proof that I'm a man
Who sometimes likes to play around
But you should know
The time has come and you're the woman
That I sure would love to love
But can you trust me?
Can you trust me?
I've had so many girls before
But they all left me wanting
More than they'll ever hope to give
They weren't like you
They weren't like you
Nothing like you
I hope that I will
Not ever catch myself
With thoughts of being with another girl
You're the one
And now we're two
I hope that you can be the one to equal me
But can you trust me?
Can you trust me?
Can you trust me?
Can you trust me?
