

I Can Kill You

The Duskfall

Listen!

Do you think that you're better than the rest of us.
You want to be treated like a god.
The wallet in your pocket is thick and fat.
Do you feel like a man?

I can't stand you, do you know the reason why?
I can kill you because I know exactly where you are.

Go, cry yourself to sleep now, you're all alone.
To see beneath the surface, you must be more.
A new dimension to explore, you might find.
That you are the one that closed the door, you're all alone!

People turn around to look at you well, do you know the reason why?
They just want to stop and laugh at you and spit behind your back.
I can't stand you, do you know the reason why?
I can kill you because I know exactly where you are.

Go, cry yourself to sleep now, you're all alone.
To see beneath the surface, you must be more.
A new dimension to explore, you might find.
That you are the one that closed the door, you're all alone!

Go, cry yourself to sleep now, you're all alone.
To see beneath the surface, you must be more.
A new dimension to explore, you might find.
That you are the one that closed the door, you're all alone!
