

Crucified

The Fixx

Every time I wear this shirt I think of you
All the dreams I have are always dreamt in blue
Every place I find myself I've been there with you
Abandoned loneliness, I ask why, why, why?

Why did you crucify me?
Strung up for your love
Was I so blind to see?
Pushed aside, sterilized, crucified

Looking back I see my faults, was I so wrong
To lock you up inside my arms? I thought I was being strong
Now I see you built the walls that keep me in
You turned my world around, and still I cry, cry, cry

Why did you crucify me?
Strung up for your love
Was I so blind to see?
Brutalized, immortalized, crucified

Abandoned loneliness
You turned my world around
Words were never said
Still I cry, cry, why?

Why did you crucify me?
Strung up for your love
Was I so blind to see?
Pushed aside, sterilized, crucified me

Strung up on your love
So blind to see?
Brutalized, immortalized
You're simply pushed aside and sterilized
Crucified me
