

Again

The Frozen Autumn

The Rain is fallin'
don't ask me why
I know the reason
inside my mind
I've no words to think, to say
I just want to dream again...
And now the rain is calling my name in vain
the flower fields aruond me I'll see no more.
I've no words to to think, to say
I just want to dream again...
this frozen autumn
can touch my hands
it is like a shadow
a breath of wind
I've no words to to think, to say
I just want to dream again...
Again...
